

Jignesh Shah Wins Ernst & Young Entrepreneur of the Year 2006 Award

Mr. Jignesh Shah, CMD of Financial Technologies Group and MD & CEO of Multi Commodity Exchange of India (MCX), won the Ernst and Young Entrepreneur of the year (Business Transformation) award for 2006.

The E&Y Entrepreneur of the Year award has increasingly come to symbolize excellence in entrepreneurship on the global stage. Today, it is unequivocally established as 'The World's Business Award', encompassing 125 cities in 40 countries.

In its eighth year in India, the award theme was "Architects of a New World". The jury comprised eminent individuals who, under the chairmanship of Mr. Sunil Mittal, used their collective wisdom and experience to evaluate and shortlist the finalists from a number of deserving nominees.

About Financial Technologies (India) Ltd.

Listed on BSE and NSE, Financial Technologies (India) Ltd. is India's leading vertical specialist enterprise delivering mission-critical, Straight-Through-Processing (STP) solutions comprising domain expertise, technology licensing and development, and transaction outsourcing services. The company has a state-of-the-art technology development centre in Mumbai providing transaction automation technologies for equities, derivatives, forex and commodity markets. FTIL has promoted India's leading multi commodity futures exchange (MCX) and inter-bank forex trading platform (IBS-Forex).